16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told if to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 Then said I unto them, We see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me, as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And the was very sore straid, 3 And said unto the king, Let the king live ened their hands for the good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and and the bars thereof, and the wall of the Tobish the servant, the Ammonite, and Ge-pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and shem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us unto the stairs that go down from the city of to scorn, and despited us, and said, What is David. this thing that ye do? 2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 But the fish-gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

6 Moreover, the old gate repaired Jeholada he son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeinh; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeomite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

9 And pext unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-monb, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces 12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halobesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley-gute repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall mato the dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Bull in the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of heard that we builded the wall, he was of Mizpah; be bull it, and covered it, and wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, the Jews.

1 Sanballat practiseth to terrify Nehemtah. 15 The work is finished. 17 Secret intelligence between the enemies and the nobles of

Judak NOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Gesham the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that i had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates ;)

That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanbaliat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter

6 Wherein mer written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. 7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one king in Juliah: and now shall it be reported in his watch, and every one to be over against to the king according to these words. Come now, therefore, and let us take counsel to-

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thise own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, genealogy. And I found a register of the gethat it be not done. Now therafore, Q Ged, nealogy of them which came up at the first, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slav thee; yea, in the night will they come to alay

11 And I said, Should such a man as I fice? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life! I will not go in.

12 And lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. la My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 T Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworm unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

month. 3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water-gate, from the morning until mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people ners attentive unto the book of the law. 4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilklah, and Maaselah, on his right hand; and on his left band, Pedalah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zecharlah, and Me-5 And Ezra opened the book in the night of the gate of Ephraim. 17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths; for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying. Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

18 Also day by day, from the first day unte God: and they kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manuer.

A solemn fast, and reventance of the people. The Levites confess God's goodness, and their own wickedness.

YOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with mekcloth, and earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stond up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lonn their-God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and wershipped

6 Thou, even thou, art Loan alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of beavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that set therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. 7 Thou art the Lorp the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; 8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee. and madest a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jobusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous: 9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red 10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharach, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as if is this day. 11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters. 12 Moreover, thou leddest them in the day they should go. 13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments: 14 And madest known unto them thy holy subbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments.

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou are a God ready to partion, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsonkest them

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and sad wrought great provocations:

19 Yet thou, in thy manifold mercies, for ble seem little before thee, that hath come sookest them not in the midderness: the pillar upon us, en our kings, on our princes, and of the cloud departed not from them by day, to on our priests, and on our prophets, and lead them in the way; neigher the pillar of fire on our fathers, and on all thy people, since by night, to show them light, and the way in time of the kings of Assyris unto this wherein they should go. ,

20 Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing : their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners : so they possersed the land of Sibon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou harbt promised to their fathers, that they should in to pos-

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Camanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods. wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit trees is abundance: so they did est, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodne

26 Nevertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and siew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar in the time of their trouble, when they cried of fire, to give them light in the way wherein unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee : therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven, and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies ; 29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. 30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets; yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. 31 Nevertheless, for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant, and mercy, let not all the trou-ble seem little before thee, that hath come day.

33 Howbeit, thou are just in all that is | 30 And that we would not give our daugh-brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but | ters unto the people of the land, nor take their we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments, and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. 35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and is thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works,

36 Behold, we are servants this day; and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it.

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the lrings whom it.ou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this, we make a sure ecvenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

15 The those days sew I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the subbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath : and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath- pointed, and for the first-fruits. buchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. 7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful: whom Mordecal, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. 9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concern-ing him. But Mordecal bowed not, nor did kim reve ence. 3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why trans-gressest thou the king's commandment 4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecal bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scern to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, te de with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first mouth, and there was written, according to all that Ha-man had commanded, unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were ever every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Abssuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was pub-lished unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan. was perplexed.

1 Mordeool and the Jews mourn. 15 Either appointeth a fast.

WHEN Mordecal perceived all that was on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a. bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate : for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with mackcloth.

3 And in every province, whitherseever theking's commandment and his degree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many. lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 T Se Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told if her. Then was the queen ex-ceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecal, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received if not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecal, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate. 7 And Mordecai told him of all that had-the king's treasuries, for the Jews, to destroy; be granted thee : and what is thy request? 8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew if unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplicatien unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 ¶ Asd Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai; II All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whoseever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed; and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this!

15 Then Esther hade them return Mordeeel this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that ere present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which to not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Merdecal went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said upto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to henour? Now. Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to de henour more than to 10 Then the king said to Hamen, Make heste, ad take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew that sitteth at the king's gate : let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecal, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him. Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to bonour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the king's rate. But Haman hasted to his house mourn-ng, and having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

4 Then the king held out the golden aceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the hing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces

6 For how can I endure to see the evil the shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred ?

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Merdecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Eather the house of Ha-man, and him they have banged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jewa.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal if with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sone be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand but they laid not their hands on the Pealm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my beart is overwhelmed : lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a sheller for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah. 5. For thou, O God, hast heard my vows:

fear thy name. 6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

1 David, professing his confidence in God. discourageth his enemies; 5 in the same confidence he encourageth the godly. 9 No trust is to be put in worldly things. 11 Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Pualto of David.

TRULY my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation. 2 He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

I An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of Gods 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God choss Judak. Zion, and David.

¶ Maschil of Amph.

IVE car, O my people, to my law: incline G your ear to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Loan, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath dene.

5 For he' established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their ehildren :

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his con remandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spi-Fit was not steadfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and earrying bows, turned back in the day of battle 10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

11 And forgat his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 Marvellous things did be in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, is the field of Zona.

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through: and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their just.

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said,
Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the wa ters gushed out, and the streams overdowed; can be give bread also? can be provide fiesh for his people?

21 Therefore the Loan heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and unger also came up against Israel :

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation: 23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, 24 And had rained down manna upon then to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. 26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind. 27 He rained fiesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

28 And he let if fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.
29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire; 30 They were not estranged from their lust: but while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and inquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him. neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their injusty, and destroyed them not: yea many a time turned he his sager away, and did not atir up all his wrath. 39 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. 40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and timited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor th day when he delivered them from the enemy 43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt. and his monders in the field of Zeng.

48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. 49 He cast upon them the flerceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence: 51 And smote all the first-born in Egypt;

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies;

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful how. 58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. 59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage. 64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation. 65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of dwellest between he cherubins, shine forth. sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by ened not unto the voice of the LORD. 26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. 28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-

peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them. 30 Then steed up Phinehas, and executed judgment : and so the plague was stayed.

The PROVERBS.

CHAP. 1.
3 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word; 10 to avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt.

THE proverbs of Solomon, the son of David king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding; 3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion 5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings. 7 The fear of the Load is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction. 8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother: 9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

II If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause: 12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit: 13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil: 14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse.

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 (Surely in vain the not is spread in the sight of any bird.)

18 And they lay wait for their own blood;

they lurk privily for their own lives. 19 So are the ways of every one that is reedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof. 20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets: 21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, to the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying, 22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love 13 Who leave the paths of simplicity? and the scorners delight in their walk in the ways of darkness;

scorning, and fools hate knowledge? 23 Turn you at my reproof - behold, I will the frowardness of the wicked : our out my Spirit unto you, I will make 15 Whose ways are crocked known my words unto you. 24 T Because I have called, and ye refused; Ishave stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; 25 But ye have set at nought; all; my counsals and would-none of my reproof:

26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; 27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; whea distress and anguish cometh upon you

23 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Loans 30 They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. 31 Therefore shall they est of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whose hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of. avil.

CHAP. 11. l Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children,

10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways. MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; 4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; 5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

3 I sought in mine beart to give myself unto wine, (yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded the houses; I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruite;

6 I made me pools of water to water there with the wood that bringeth forth trees;

7 I got me servasts and maidens, and had servants born to my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me;

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh's blasphemous persuasions to the people: 22 his words are told to Hesekiah.

NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib. king of Assyria, came up against all the de-fenced cities of Judah, and took them. 2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuiler's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilrecorder. 4 T And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezeklah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Amyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now, on whom dost theu trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Phazaoh king of Egypt to all that trust is him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the Load our God: is that he, whose high places and whose aitars Hezekiah hath take. away and said to Judah and to Jerusalem. Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

2 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariets and for horsemen?

10 And am I now-come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joan unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it; and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabsbakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? 13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said. Hear ye the words of the great king, the king

CHAP. XLII.

1 The office of Christ: 5 God's promise to him.
10 An exhortation to praise God. EHOLD my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. 2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street. 3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax s'all he not queuch: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail, nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the Loap, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the knew not people upon it, and spirit to them that walk to heart. therein:

6 I the Loan have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles:

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

I am the Load : that is my name : and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare : before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 T Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his Praise-from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

14 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the reck sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the Load, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The Load shall go forth as a mighty man, be shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, rear; he shall prevail against his enemies. 14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a traveiling women; I will destrey and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools 16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. 17 They shall be turned back, they shall be creatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say, to the melten images, Ye are our rods. 18 T Hear, ye doef; and look, ye blind, that e may see.

ousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it bonourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled: they are all of them spared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey. and none delivement; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

CHAP. L. I Christ sheweth the cause of the Jews' dereliction. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

HUS saith the Long, Where is the bull of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is if to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put AWAY.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man! when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to de-liver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their ash stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and

I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary; he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 T The Lord Gop hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, meither turned away

6 I gave my back to the switers, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair : I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 T For the Lord GoD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 He is near that justifieth me; who will centend with me ? let us stand together : who & mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord Gou will help me; who to he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 T Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and bath no light? let him trust in the name of the Long, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks : walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAP. LI. 1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ. 9 Christ defendeth his people from fear.

I EARKEN to me, ye that follow after richteousness, ye that seek the Loan: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Abraham your lather, and unto Sarsh that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the Loan shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Loan; loy and gladness shall be found therein, thankegiving, and the voice of melody.

4 T Hearken unto me, my people; and shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people. give ear unto me, O my metion: for a law

5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the beavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like amoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manher: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished

7 T Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be we afraid of their revilings.

8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall cut them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 T Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

10 Art thou not it which bath dried the sca, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the see a way for the ran-somed to pass over?

Il Therefore the redeemed of the Long shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

13 And forgettest the Lord thy maker that hath stretched forth the heavens, and lad the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the op-pressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the Long thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The Loup of hosts is his name.

16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the beavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ Awake, awake, stand up. O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom sue bath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee! desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword :

by whom shall I comfort thee ?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net : hey are full of the fury of the Loan, the rebuke of thy God.

21 Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine :

27 Thus eaith thy Lord the Long, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his peo-ple, Behold, I have taken out of thise hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over. CHAP. LII.

I Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, 7 to receive the ministers,

S to joy in the power thereof.

WAKE, awake; put on thy strength, O
Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city : for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumeised and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the Lord, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them with-fore her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not out cause

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the Loan, that my people is taken away for nought! They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the Loan; and my name continually every day is blasphemed

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak : behold, if is I. 7 ¶ How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith usto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; and the swith the voice together shall they sing: for his hand. they shall see eye to eye, when the Long shall bring again Zion.

9 T Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem : for the Long hath comforted his people, he buth redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The Loan hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Il ¶ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye cut of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Loan.

12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the Lord will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your mrward.

13 ¶ Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:)

15 So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him : for skall which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

was despised, and we esteemed him not. 4 T Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, As was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

F thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the Loan, return unto me : and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt event. The Lone liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteounness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory

3 T For thus saith the Loan to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns

4 Circumcise yourselves to the Load, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem : lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench if, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say. Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, Gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not . for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. 7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the Loan is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord Gen I surely thou not greatly deceived this people and Jerumlem, saying, We shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleause,

12 Even a full wind from these places shall come unto me : now also will I give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his shariots shall be as a whiriwind a his horses are wifter than eagles. We unto us! for we are spoiled.

unto thine heart. 19 T My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trum-pet, the alarm of war.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled : suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

31 How long shall I see the standard, see hear the sound of the trumpet ? 22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding : they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. 26 I beheld, and lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Loan, and by his fierce anger. 27 For thus bath the Loap said. The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black : because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the poise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be formaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And mass thou art spoiled, what will thou do! Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travall, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewalleth berself, that presedeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now ! for my soul is weeried because of mur-

The judgments of God upon the Jone for their manifold corruptions

R UN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, Behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire. and this people wood, and it shall devour

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the Loan: it is a mighty nation, it is an aucient nation, a hation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish thy fen-eed cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so ere their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherleast yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

9 ¶ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so : and what will ye do is the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

The enemies sent against Judah, 4 encourage themselves. 6 God selfeth them on work because of their sins.

O'YE children of Benjamir, gather your-selves to fice out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekon, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-baccerem : for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction. 2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. 4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at nosa. Wo unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 T For thus hath the Lord of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness : violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee deso-late, a land not fainabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Loan of hests, They shall throughly glean the remnant of lavel as a vice: turn back thine band as a grapegatherer into the bankets. 10 To whom shall I speak, and give werning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken:

behold, the word of the Lone is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the Loap; I am weary with holding in: I will pome it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men, together: for even the husband with the wife shall be laken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the juha-bitants of the land, saith the LORD. 13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. 14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination! Nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush : therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus eaith the Lozo, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said. We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know,

O congregation, what is among them. 19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but reject-20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country! Your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus suith the Loan, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the some together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

2 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their roice roureth like the sea ; and they ride upon horses, set in erray as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble : anguish bath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyrelf in sahes; make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortrees abionz my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with standers: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people !

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lode: ing-place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treecherous men.

3 And they bend their tongues like their how for lies : but they are not valuant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother; for every heather will atterfy supplant, and every neighbour will walk with standers.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies,

CHAP. XI. 1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, 8 78buketh the disobediest Jews: 13 ha prophesi-eth evils to come upon them.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LOAD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerumlem

3 And my thou unto them, Thus mith the LORD God of Israel; Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying. Obe my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people. and I will be your God

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as if is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be R, O day. LORD.

6 Then the Joan said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them. 7 For I carnestly protested duto your fa-thers in the day Mai I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. 8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them

9 And the Loap said unto me, A compiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusales

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forelathers, which refused to beer my mords; and they went after other gods to serve them : the house of Israel and the house of Judah bave broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

they happy that deal very treacherously?
2 Thou hast planted them; yes, they have taken root: they grow; yes, they bring forth fruit: thou ert near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O Long, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein! The heasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said,

He shall not see our last end.

I thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put of on my loim.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me

the second time, saying, 4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as the Lord commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the Loan said ento me, Arise, go to Euphra-tes, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

Il And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Loap of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them to Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, seith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the Loap had sent him to prophety; and he stood in the court of the Lond's house; and said to all the people.

15 Thus saith the Lorn of hosts, the God of israel; Rehold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not beamy words.

7 9 O Loan, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. 8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 T For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

1? But the Load is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everisating confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O Loan of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them : for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the Long, praise ye the Long: for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil-doers.

14 ¶ Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the Loap overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the

3 Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah :

4 Thus saith the Loap God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiegs you without the walls, and I will assemble them i.t.o the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm. even in anger, and in fury, and in great city, both men and beast, they shall die of a great postilence.

7 And afterward, saith the Loan, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his serwants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enumies, and loto the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the aword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor prey.

10 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the Loap: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

11 T And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the Loan; 12 O house of David, thus with the Loan; Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold. I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the Loan; which say, Who shall come down against us! or who shall enter into our of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the Loan; Execute ye judg-

CHAP. XXIII.

1 He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered lock. 9 Against false prophets. WO be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lond.

2 Therefore thus saith the Loan God of Israci against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Loau.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Loan.

days ye shall consider it perfectly.
21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran : I have not spoken to them, yet they pre-

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the Loun answered thee ! and, What hath the Lond spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the Loan; therefore thus saith the Loan; Because ye say this word, The burden of the Loan, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word from the Loan, saying,

2 Thus saith the Loan; Stand in the court of the Lond's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the Loup's house, all the words that I command the kings of the mingled people that dwell thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, saith the Loan, If ye will not hearten to me, to walk in my law, which I have set 5 To hearken to the words of my servants prophesied against this city, and against this the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both land, according to all the words of Jeremiah: rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. 7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. 8 T Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Loan, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate habitant? And all the people without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Logo.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the Lozp, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house.

Il Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die: for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with Your ears.

12 T Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying. The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Loap your God; and the Loap will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die , for he hath spoken to us in the name of the Loap our

God. 17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying, 18 Micab the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become beaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the comme people. 24 Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam the

Il And Hamaniah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the Loap; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Rabylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years.

And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. 12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jaremiah, saying, 13 Go, and tell Hananiah, saying. Thus saith the Loap; Thou bast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of 15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah ; The LORD bath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah's imprisonment: 18 his complaint to God. 28 The captivity confirmed. 36 A premise of a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Loan in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jarusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which

and he shall take it :

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldenns, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babrion, and there shall be be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldens, ye to them, mith the redemption is thine to buy it. 8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to verant that I will me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the Lorn, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin : for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the Lond.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels

of silver

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed ut, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baroch the son of Neriah, the son of Masseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's ton, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 T And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the Loan of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the Long of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be pessessed again in this land.

16 T Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, 1 prayed unto the Loan, saying, 17 Ab Lord Gon! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too bard for thee:

18 Thou shewest loving kindness unto thouands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the Loan of hosts, is his name,

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day:

21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror; 22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey:

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commended them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against at Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them it, because of the sword, and of the famine, good, and I will plant them in this land as and of the pestilence: and what thou hast swredly with my whole heart, and with my spoken is come to yess: and behold, thou whole soul moest if.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the Loan unto

Jeremiah, saying, 27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh : is there any thing too hard for me ! 28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it :

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth : for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the Loan.

31 For this city hath bees to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the chudren of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back. and not the face : though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to de-

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I com-manded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination to cause Judah to sin.

36 T And now therefore thus saith the Long, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylou, by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: 28 And they shall be my people, and I will premise of a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Loan in the tenth year of Zedeklah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying. Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lond, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon,

and he shall take it ;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the band of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; 5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylou, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the Loan: though ye fight with the Chaldeaus, ye shall not prosper.

Then I knew that this was the word of the Loan.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weigh ed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed ut, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Masseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's 10m, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

2 Thus eaith the Loan, the God of Israel, Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the Loan; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surcly be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the transgressed my covenant, which have not

4 Yet hear the word of the Loun, O Zedekiah king of Judah : Thus saith the Loap of thee. Thou shalt not die by the sword: 5 But thou shalt die in peace : and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will iament thee, saying. Ah lord! for I have pronounced the nord, saith the Lord.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in

Jeruszlem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah; for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jereminh from the Load, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to will, of a Jew his brother. 10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant. heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 T Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the Load, saying,

THE word which came to Jeremish from the LORD, in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying.

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabitce, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the Load, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the sen of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which nas by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maase ish the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door :

5 And I set before the some of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and

6 But they said, We will drink no wine : for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine. meither ye, nor your sons for ever

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where we be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jo-nadab the son of Rechab our father in all man to his neighbour; and ye lad made a co-venant before me is the house which is called that he hath charged us, to drink no wine also our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in ? neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:
10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Kebuchadrez-zar king of Babylon came up into the land, every one to his brother, and every man to that we said, Come, and let us no to Jerusahis neighbour: beheld, I proclaim a liberty lem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so pestilence, and to the famine: and I will make we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the Loan unto Jeremiah, saying, of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and; estion before the Lozn, and will return every the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not re-one from his evil way : for great is the anger ceive instruction to hearken to my words ! and the fury that the Lorp hath pronounced saith the Loan.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Reclimb, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking : but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gids to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given a you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your car, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not bearkened unto me :

17 Therefore thus saith the Load God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have and I have called unto them, but they have and all the princes. not answered.

8 And Baruch the son of Nerish did seconding to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jeholakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the Lond to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah, unto Jerusalem

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the Lorn, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the Loan's house, in the ears of all the people.

Il When Michalah the son of Gemerich. the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book

all the words of the Lond,

12 Theu he went down into the king's house into the scribe's chamber, and le, all the prin-ces sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delainh the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of spoken unto them, but they have not heard; Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hamaniah, > 13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the cars of the people.

> 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the sen of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Ba-ruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

> 15 And they said unto him, Sit down now and read it in our cers. So Beruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had beard all the words, they were afraid, both one and other, and said unto Baruch. We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they saked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didnt thou write all these words at his mouth f

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jereminh; and let so man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they leid up the roll in the chamber of Eliabama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king, 21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the acribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the cars of the king, and in the cars of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter-house in the nigth month: and there was a fire on in the fire that was on the hearth. 24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent the ir wants that heard all these words. 26 Nevertheless, Elmathan and Delaiah and not hear them.

Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would with fire.

36 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the selves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely ceson of Hammelech, and Saraiah the son of Abele, to take Tiel, and Shelemiah the son of Abele, to take 10 For though ye had smitten the whole ar-Baruch the scribe and Jeramiah the prophet; my of the Chaldeans that fight against you. but the Loap hid them.

27 Then the word of the Load came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jeholakim king of Judah, Thus saith the Loro; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast ?

30 Therefore thus saith the Lord of Jehoiskim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body all be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the front.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they bearkeved not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriab; who wrote therein from the mouth of Je-reminh all the words of the book which Jehotakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the Loap, which he spake by the prophet

Jeremiab. 3 And Zedekish the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Masseigh the priest to the prophet Jeremiah saying, Pray now unto the Loan our God into prison.

5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they separted from Jerusalem.

§ Then came the word of the Loap unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

Il T And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaob's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. 13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah. It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he heartened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in pri-son in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out : and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the Loan? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Bubyion shall not come against you, nor against this land ?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the baker's street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

5 Then Zer'ekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your band: for the king is not he that can

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. in the dungeon there nas no water, but mire: turned away back so Jeremian sunk in the mire.

7 T Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dangeon; (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;)

8 Ebed-molech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, 9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have east into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-meloch the Ethiopius, saying, Take from hence thirty non with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he

12 And Died-melech the Ethiopian said upto

13 So they drow up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremian remained in the court of the prison.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedeklah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have falled with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast place where he is for there is no more bread said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: 26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremish, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had sommanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the Jereminh, Put now these old cast clouts and prison until the day that Jerubalem was ta-outen rogs under thine armholes, under the kens and he was there when Jerusalem was CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 7 Zedekiah made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city is refued.

9 The people are captivated.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, couth neither will I give thee into the hand of all the residue of the princes of the king of Bdoylon.

4 T And it came to pass, that when Zedekish the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwint the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains where begave judgment upon him.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 7 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem. 9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained. 10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vine; and and fields at the same time.

11 T Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, 12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto himreven as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab saris, and Norgalsharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home; so he dwelt among the people.

15 T Now the word of the Loan came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethlopian, saying, Thus saith the Loud of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before 17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the Lord: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Loan.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land. 7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Scraigh the son of Tanhumeth, and the sous of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Manchathite, they and their men

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeaus: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Baby-

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. 11 Likewise when all the Jews that ners in

Mosb, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpan, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 T Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly the Lord, after that Nebuzar again the know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee! But Gedeliah the son of Ahlkam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Sedalish in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know if: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?

OW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmeel the son of Nethaniah the son of Blishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah ; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Isbmael the son of Nethaniah. and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the lend

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with hire, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the Men of war.

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedalish, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, rven fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Long.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unte them, Come to Gedafish the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Netheniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him

8 But ten men were found among them, that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he for-hare, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedallah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Miz-pah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Ne-buzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Geduliah the son of Ahitam: and Isbmael the son of Nathaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 T But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that, when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were 14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and west unto Johanan the son of Luresh.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah esca-I Ishmael treacherously killeth Gedelich and ped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah. and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethanish, from Mizpah, after that he had staim Ge-dalish the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlebem, to go to enter into Egypt,

18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the con of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. whom the king of Babyion made governor in the land.

2 Johanan carrieth Jeremiah into Egypt. Jeremiah prophesieth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

A ND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the works of the Loan their God, for which the Loan their God had seat him to

3 But Baruch the sop of Neriah settath thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might ut us to death, and carry us away captives atto Babylon.

4 So Johanna the som of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, sheyed not the voice of the Lazz, to dwell to the land of Judaha dwell in the land of Judah : 6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedalish the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. 7 So they came into the land of Egypt : for they obeyed not the voice of the Lean : thus came they even to Tabpanhas.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the Loan unto

Jaremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharach's house in Tahpunhes, in the sight of the men of Judah: 10 And say unto them, Thus saith the Loan of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Baby-ion, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall 23 of Domascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the Load; Hath Israel no sons? bath he no beir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with are: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his beirs, saith the Loan.

3 Howi, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird ye with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the bedges: for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me!

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, mith the Loap Go of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall

CHAP. LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, &c.

EDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libsuh.

2 And he did that which was evil in the even of the Loan, according to all that Jeholakim had done. 3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Ze-deklah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 4 T And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babyion came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city so that there was no bread for the people of the

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fied, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. 8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedeklah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scatter.

ed from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamsth; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekish before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Ribiah.

Il Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and the ring or Babyion some into in casina, and carried him to Babyion, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 T Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadvezzar king of Babyion, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusa-

 3 The word of the Lord came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans, by the river Chebar; and the hand of the Loan was there upon him.
- 4 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the morth, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness mas about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.
- 5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet mas like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass

8 And they had the bands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand; and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made set and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from

CHAP. XXI. Excited propherieth against Jermalem. 8 The sharp and bright sword.

A saying, and of the Loan came unto me, 2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop the word toward the holy places, and prophecy against the land of Israel.

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Loan; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall ay sword go forth out of his sheath against ali esh from the south to the north :

5 That all flesh may know that I the Lorn have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath:

it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the swer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord Gop.

8 ¶ Again the word of the Long came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Loan; Say, & sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpesed to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? It contempets the rod of my son, as every tree.

II And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be tapon my people, it shall be upon all the prin-ces of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

that are stain, which entereth into their privy chambers. 15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ab!

it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter. 16 Go thee one way or other, elther on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever the face is set

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest : I the LORD have said ff.

18 T The word of the Long came unto me again, saying, 19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee twe ways, that the aword of the king of Babylon may come; both twain shall come forth out of one land : and choose thou a place, choose # at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways to use divination: he made &ir arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the disination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord Gom: Because ye have made your iniquity to be breaking of thy loins, and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, When they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou! that thou shall as come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Lord Cop : Remove the diadem, and take off the crown : this shall not be the same : exalt him that to low, and abase him that is high.

27 I will overture, overture, everture it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it Aim.

28 % And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord Gon concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach, even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn : for the slaughter if is furbished, to consume because of the glittering :

29 While they see vanity unto thee, while they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is covie, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause if to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against these in the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. 32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land, thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Loan have spoken #. CHAP. XXII. 17 God

MOREOVER, the word of the Loan came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bleedy city? Yea, thou shalt show her all her abominations. 3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord Gon;

The city sheddeth blood in the midst of Rythat her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and are come even unto thy years: therefore have I made then a reproach unto the heathen, and a monking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall much thee which art infamous and much vexed. 6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee bave they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. 8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and best profuned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewd-

10 In thee have they discovered their fa-ther's makedness: in thee have they humbled ber that was set apart for pollution.

Il And one bath committed abominution with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee bath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord Gop.

13 T Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at they dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee. 14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the Loan have spoken if, and will do tt. 15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in Toyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the Long.

17 ¶ And the word of the Loan came unto me, saying, 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tim, and fron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace;

they are even the dross of silver. 19 Therefore thus with the Lord Gop . Be-fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the fore I will gather you tute the midst of Jeruse-

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tim, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt if; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yes, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. 22 As alliver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall we be melted in the midst, thereof; and ye shall know that I the Loan have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Loan came unto

me, saying,
24 Son of man, say unto her. Thou set the land that is not cleansed, nor raised upon in the day of indignation

25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a rouring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have caken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profused mine boly things: they have put no difference between the boly and prorane, neither have they showed difference be-tween the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my subbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey to shed blood, and to destroy souls, so get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempared morfer, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord Gop, when the Lorn buth not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and seedy; yes, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man author them that should make up the bedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have

I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord Gop.

The wheredoms of Aholah and Aholibah: 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her levers: 45 their judgments.

HE word of the Loan came again unto me. saying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate. 4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end :

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord Gon, will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee; sith thou hast not bated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his stain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return : and ye shall know that I am the Load.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the Loan was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord Gos, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hetred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

3 And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in three on this side, and three on that side; his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, Lord Gon; Speak unto every feathered fowl, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine cars, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured be the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side : and the little chambers mers six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack Oking, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the inter-pretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter : therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that ask-ed such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. Il And it is a rare thing that the king rewireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise seen of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arjoch, the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and

Azariah bis companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, of the provinces, to come to the dedication of power, and strength, and glory. 38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of dom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong forsemuch as iron breaketh in ms iron: pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou cawest the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, foresmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with the miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were past of iron and part of elay; so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken 43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men : but they shall not cleave one to another, even as fron is not mixed

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not he left to other people, but it shall break in places and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Foresmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter : and the dream is certain, and the Interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and com-manded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth if is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babyles: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

men before the king.

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be east the same hour into the midst of a burning flery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered, and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand. O king.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. 30 The king spake and said, Is not this great

Bahylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the henour of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Netuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoover he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

DELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine

2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines,

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 $ In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's band, and wrote over against the candiestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astro-logers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor until thou know that the Most High ruleth in make known to the king the interpretation

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was chauged in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 T Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake, and said, Oking, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: 11 There is a man in thy kingdom, whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in ing and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation. 13 Then was Daniel brought in before the And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Julah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry ? 14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. 15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Beishazzar, hast not humbled thine beart, though thou knewest all

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him, and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God bath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclama-tion concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 T In that night was Belshazzer the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

1 Daniel's preferment: 16 he is cast into the den of Hone, 18 and saved.

T pleased Darius to set over the kingdom I an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should bave no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his

God

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be east into the den of lions

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius rigned the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber to-ward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, king, shall be calt into the den of lions? The: king answered and said. The thing is true, ac-Daribs, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian sording to the law of the Modes and Persians, CHAP. VII. which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king. That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day

14 Then the king, when he heard there words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king. and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is. That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Da-Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting : neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his

25 T Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

N the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. 4 The first was like a lion, and had eagles' wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked and it was lifted up from the earth. and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a 6 After this I beheld, and lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat. 13

The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice.

N the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar, a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elum; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river.

of Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw. and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two borns; and the two borns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts

he told me, and made me know the interpreta- | any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. 9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great. toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon power.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which -pake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of devolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleaned.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, come I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, ary that is devolate, for the Lord's sake. 18 O my God, incline thinc ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name : for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteouspesses, but for thy great mercies.

CHAP. X.

1 Daniel, having humbled himself, seeth a vision: 10 being troubled with Jear, he is comforted by an angel.

N the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 1 ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen. whose loins were girded with flue gold of 6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his urms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision; for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselver. & I herefore I was left alone, and saw this corruption, and I retained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: ami when I heard the voice of his words, then was

I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. 10 T And behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. 12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel:

for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

withstood me one and twenty days: but lo, the king of the north, and shall deal against Michael, one of the chief princes, came to them, and shall prevail:

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days. for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

lo And behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord ? For as for me, staightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said. Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee! and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will show thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth : and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm : neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her as these times.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and in shall them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and pass over. he shall forecast his devices against the strong bolds, even for a time.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. 27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. 28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter

1 The Jews having sent to inquire concerning the set faste, 4 Zechariah reproveth the hypocrisy of their fasts. 8 They are eshoried by repeniance to remove the cause of their calamity.

ND it came to pass in the fourth year of A king Durius, that the word of the Loan came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the uinth month, even in Chisleu;

2 When they had sent unto the bouse of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to peay before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto the priests which mere in the house of the Loan of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the Loap of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me!

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye cat for yearselves, and drink for nourcelves?

7 Should ye not hear the words which the Loan hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosforth into the north country; and the white go perity, and the cities thereof round about forth after them; and the grisled go forth her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatheriess, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not heaf.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Long of bosts bath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets; therefore came a great wrath from the Load of

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

The GOSPEL according to ST. MATTHEW.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogy of Christ: 18 his conception and birth: 21, 23 his names, with their interpretation.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. 2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Juda and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom bega: Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon; 5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed hegat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the Jews! for we have seen his star in the east, the mife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram ; and Joram begat Ozias ;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Ma-born. nasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

II And Josias begat Jechonias and he brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat rule my people Israel. Zorobabel

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadon; and Sadoc begat

Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the hurband of prophet Esalas, saying, The voice of one cry- at anying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of stone. the Lord, make his paths straight. 4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his boney.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan.

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confering their sins. 7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Saldwees come to his baptism, he said up othem, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to fiee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say lee: unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up chibiren unto Abraham. to And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees; therefore every tree which bilingeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and car into the tire.

sea: for they were fishers. 19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them. 22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and frem beyond Jordan.

CHAP. V.

3 Who are blessed. 13 The Apostles are the salt of the earth, and light of the norld.

A ND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mount in: and when he was sat, his disciples car e unto him.

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saving,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blewed are the meek: for they shall inberit the earth. 6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after rightcousness: for they shall be filled 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are tl - peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

If Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in beaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. 13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but it the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the bouse.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I am come to destroy and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heavers and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the la., till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisces, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: 22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in dan-ger of the council: but whosever shall but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell 23 Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, 24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and ro thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother. and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cart into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing. 27 9 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: 28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to just after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into 30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast if from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hach been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That whosever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but and whosoever shall marry ber that is divorced, to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of committeen adultery. 33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forwear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

spitefully use you and persecute you; 45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publi-cans the same!

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so ?

14 For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disingure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you. They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye: and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shall thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Of blasphemy against the Holy Ghost.

T that time Jesus went on the sabbath-day A through the corn; and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat. 2 But when the Pharisces saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath-day

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what Daviddid, when he was an hungared, and

4 flow he entered into the house of God, and did cat the shew-bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were, and he that gathereth not with me scattereth with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that, on the sabbath-days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, £id are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I' will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbat b-day.

9 ¶ And when he was departed thence. he went into their synagogue: 10 And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying. Is it lawful to heal on the subbath-days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep. and if it 'Il into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? 12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days. 13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other. 14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all; 16 And charged them, that they should not make him known: 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, 18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles. 19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quepch, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust. 22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb; and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This f. llow doth not cast out devils, but by Brelzebub the prince of the devils. 25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

world, neither in the world to come. 33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers! bow can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things; and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 T Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: 40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the carth. 41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn

: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold, a greater than Jonas is here. 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomou is here. 43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with bimself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation

46 T While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and brother, and sister, and mother.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross. and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eves they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart. and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see:

and your ears, for they hear.

31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all reeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake be unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake be not unto them :

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been ker secret from the foundation of the world.

the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them. 18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. 24 And when the ten heard if, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him displeased, be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: 28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

7 But when the king heard thereof he was wroth: and he gent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8 Theu saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. 9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wed-unfo his brother : 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. 27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all bad her. 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the poner of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken un'o you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

CHAP. XXVI. 3 The relers conspire against Christ: 14 Indas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover. A ND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, 2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Calaphas

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him-

5 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 T Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house o Simon the leper.

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster-box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw il, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 270

9 For this ointment snight have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 When Jesus understood ff, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. 11 For ye have the poor always with you:

but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this cintment on my body, she did to for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you. Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world. there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas

Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said mto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.
17 T Now the first day of the feast of unienvened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him. The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover. 20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. 21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

23 And they were exceeding corrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it !?

23 And he answered and said, He that dipth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth, as it is written of him; but we unto that man by whom the Son, of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. 25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it 1? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were enting, Jesus took bread, and blessed if, and brake if, and gave if to the disciples, and said, Take, est; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks and gave if to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

30 And when they had sung an tymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saids Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I merison egain, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him. Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto: thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 T Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples. Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he urto them. My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

33 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou will.

40 And be cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them saleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, mying the same PORTS

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and suith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth hetray me.

47 T And while he yet spake, le, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

49 Now he that betrayed him gave them a mgn, saying, Whomsoever I shall kies, that same is ne; hold him fast.

43 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Mail, Master; and kiesed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, where-

35 In that same hour said Jesus to the multi-11: tos, Are ye come out as against a thief with words and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 T And they that had laid hold on Jesus. led him away to Calaphas the high priest where the scribes and the elders were wasen. bled

58 But Peterfollowed him afar off, unto the high priest's palace, and west in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus. to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none.

last came two false whoeses, of And said, This fillow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. 62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is if mirical these witness against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace And the high priest asswered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. 64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless, I say unto you, Herenster shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses! beheld, now ye have heard his blusphemy. 66 What think ye! They suswered and said,

He is guilty of death. 87 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and other a mote aim with the palme of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ. Who is he that smote thee? 69 T Now Peter sat without in the palace; and a dameet came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jeaus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou savest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch. another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And seain he denied with an eath, I do not know the man.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Christ delivered to Pilate. 5 Indas hangeth himself. 35 Christ is erucifed.

HEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him they led him away, and delivered him to Pontins Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemsed, re-pented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and side a.

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have: betraved the innocent blood. What is that to us! see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and banged Hail, King of the Jews!

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces. and said. It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. 9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value; 10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 ¶ And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.
12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee ? 14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont

'to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.
16 And they had then a notable prisoner,

17 Therefore when they were gathered togs-ther, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christ.?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgmentseat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

29 But the chief priests and elders personded the multitude, that they should ask Barabbas. and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Waether of the twale will ye that I release unto you? They said, Burabbas. 22 Pilate saith unto them. What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. 23 And the governor said, Why? what evil bath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 T When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it. 26 Then answered all the people, and said. His blood be on us, and on our children

Then released be Barabbas unto them: md when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered tom; and the earth did quake, Aim to be crucified.

A rahles. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and scut him avay empty. 4 And again he sent unto them another servant: and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent Alm away shamefully handled.

5 Aud again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some. 6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves. This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's. 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do! He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto 10 And have ye not read this scripture, The all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unio him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles: 14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip Alphaus, and Simon called Zelotes,

16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscarlot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there west virtue out of him, and healed them all.

more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written. Behold. I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying. We have piped unto you, and re have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children. 36 T And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisco's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him, weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

And he saith, Master, say on. 41 There was a certain creditor which bad two debtors; the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

12 Those by the way-side are they that bear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, 9 And his diciples asked him, saying, What thou Son of God most high! I beseech there torment me not.

39 (For he had commanded the uncleas spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. 31 And they be sought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fied, and went and told if in the city, and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in himsright mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devil-was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about, besought him to depart from them: for they were taken with great fear. And be went up into the ship, and returned back again.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

8 And of some, that Ellas had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was riven again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

Il And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶ And when the day began to wear away. then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained

27 But I tell you of a truth, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.

28 7 And it came to pass, about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and Jehn, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And, as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias; 31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 But Peter, and they that were with him. were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake they saw his glory, and the two men-that stood with him.

23 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the aloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept if close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

-37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company, cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, laok upon my son; for he is mine only child:

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he sud-dealy crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him. 40 And I becought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

4! And Jesus auswering, said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you! Bring thy son bither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 T And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the flands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 T Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

48 And said unto them, Whosoever that and whosever shall receive me, receive's him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said, Master. we saw one casting out devils in thy name: and we forbed him because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid &im not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, te steadfastly set his face to go to Jerus

52 And sent memengers before his face : and they went and entered into a village of the maritans to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples, James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wift thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ve are of.

56. For the Son of man is not come to destroy me: ives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 T And it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him Lord, I will follow then whithersoever then goest. 58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes bave holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another. Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. 61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee : but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said upto him, No men having put his hand to the plow, and looking back. is fit for the kingdom of God.

him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his bands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

M And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you in the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to wetering?

16 And ought not this woman, daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day?

4 I am resolved what to do: that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

little ones.

3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother treepses against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 and if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 T And the apostles said unto the Lord,

Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine-tree. Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

ND it came to pass, that on one of those L days, as he taught the people in the tem ple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the elder:

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us. By what authority doest thou these things? or, Who is he that gave thee this authority

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The haptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, say ing, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That they could not tell whence it was. 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell 1

you by what authority I do these things.
9 Then began he to speak to the people

this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husband-men beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 And again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefally, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, and cast his out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do! I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and the God of Jacob.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he be-rand killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these has-at least in this thy day, the things which belong bandmen, and shall give the vineyard to And when they heard if, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone and thy children within thee; and they shall shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; 45 And he went into the temple, and began and they feared the people: for they perto cast out them that sold therein, and them ceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men. that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saving, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, in ther arceptest thou the person of any, but ieachest the way of God truly; 22 La it lawful for us to give tribute unto 26 And they could not take hold of i-is words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection, and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, if any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brethren:

and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she! For seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering, said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: 36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels: and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. 37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of lesse, 16 But their eyes were holden, that they swould not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things!
And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet menty in deed and word before God and all the people: 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and 4 In him was life; and the life was the light among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He time cometh after me is preferred before me for he was before me

16 and of his fulness have all we received

17 For the law was given by Moses, hel race and truth came by Jesus Christ. 18 No man hath seen God at any time; the

that we may give an answer to them that sent us: what sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in tae wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaiss. 24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet ?

26 John auswered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 % The next day John seeth Jesus com-ing unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh aman which is preferred before me; for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not; but 'but he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from beaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. 33 And I knew him not : but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same raid unto me, I'pon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest called the bridgeroum, thou ?

A ND the third day there was a marriage in Cama of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wice, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do & 6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firking a-piece. 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterhouse an house of merchandise. 17 And his disciples remembered that it was written. The zeal of thine house hath eaten me

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeinz that thou doest these things? 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? 21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. 24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men; 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III. 1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necesstry of regeneration. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named

Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews 2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old! can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For every one that doeth evil bateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea: and there he tarried with them, and baptized. 23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Enon. near to Salim, because there was much water there; and they came, and were baptize

25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. 26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond

53 So the father-knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jerus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V. I Jesus on the sabbath-day cureth him that was discased eight and thirty years: 10 the Jens cavil, and persecute him for it.

A FTER this there was a feast of the Jews;

and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem, by the sheepmarket, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: who toever then first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole !

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 T The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.
12 Thed asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and 13 And he that was healed wist not who it was for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterwards Jesus Andeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. 15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 T But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh bitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the abbath, but said also that God was his Eather, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father leveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

23 For the Father judgeth no man; but bath committed all judgment unto the Son :

23 That all men should benour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you. He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, bath everiasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death wato life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Futher hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; 27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of 28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth: They that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of dampation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just: because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. 33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. 34 But I receive not testimony from man;

but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light : and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. 36 T But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father liath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent 37 And the Father himself which hath sent me hath horne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you; for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 T Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

thanks:

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou bither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you. Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore noto him. What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee! what dost thou work!

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from beaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven, but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life : he that cometh to me shall never hunger: and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

-36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me, shall come

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which bath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that both heard, and bath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Futher, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto yeu, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life. 49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. 50 This is the bread which cometh down from beaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread. he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. 52 The Jews therefore strove among themelves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whose eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, bath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drink-eth my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat mamma, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. 59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard say-ing; who can hear it?

elples murmured at it, he said unto them,

Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? 63 It is the spirk that quickeneth; the flesh

profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, That no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.
66 T From that itsee many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away !

58 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 Ard we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ the Son of the living God. 70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? 71 He spake of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. 8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. 10 T But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he! 12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him; for some said,

He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. 13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught 15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? 16 Jesus answered them and said, My dog-trine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. 18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee? 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, L have done one work, and ye all marvel.

that this is the very Christ? 27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and be bath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him; but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said. When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this was hath done?

32 T The Pharisess heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them. Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselve

Whither will he go, that we shall not find him! will be go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles !

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me? and, Where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive : for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) 40 ¶ Many of the people, therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said. Shall Christ come out of Galilee ?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Beth-lehem, where David was ! 43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in edtery: 12 he preachelk kimself the hight of tre world, and justific th his doctrine.

ESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him: and he sat down and taugis them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought upto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now Meses in the law commanded us, that such should be stened; but what savest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stoored down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. 7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without ain among you, let him first cast a stone at ber.

8 And again he steeped down, and wrote an the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last : and Jesus was left nione, and the woman standing in the midst. 10 When Jesus bad lifted up himself, and sew none but the woman, he said unto her, Women, where are those thine so men hath no man condemned thee ! 11 She said. No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more 12 T Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him.

Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true. 14 Jesus answered and said usto them,

Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. 16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. 18 I am one that bear witness of myself.

an The officers answered, Neverman spake and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Pather! Jesus answered. Ye neither know me nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury s he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him: for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sina: whither I go ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go ye cannot come:

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beseath; I am from above : ye are of this world;

I am not of this world. 24 I said therefore unto you, That we shall die in your sins; for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

26 Then said they unto him, Who art thou! And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that

I said unto you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Pather.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father bath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father bath not left me alone; for I do always houreth me, of whom ye say, That he is your those things that please him.

30' As he spake these words, many believed on him. 31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him. If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man:

how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am Fay unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever; but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shali be free indeed. 37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed: but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. 39 They answered and said unto him, Abra-am is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the rorks of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that ath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then raid they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. 42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your father, ye would love me: for I proceeded brth and came from God; neither came L of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? enen because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a mur-derer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe 47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. 4B Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Fay we not well that thou art a Samaritan.

and hast a devil? 49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my raying, he shall never see death. 52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself 54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that ho-

God. 55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and bast thou seen

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by. CHAP. 1X.

1 He that was born blind is restored to sight. 13 He is brought to the Pharisecs: 34 they excommunicate him: 35 Christ receiveth him, and he confesseth Christ.

A ND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees. This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the subbath-day. Others said, How can a man that is a singer do such miracles! And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again. What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thins eyes? He said, He is a prophet. 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been hind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, in this your son, who ye say was born blind! How then doth he now see!

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

2) But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age, ask him; he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the symagogue. 33 Pherefore said his parents, He is of age,

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner:

25 He answered and said. Whether he be a sinner or no. I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Thea said they to him again, What did be to thee! how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you atready, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again ! will ye also be his disciples ? 28 Theo they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple, & it we are Moses' disciples:

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this follow, we know and from whence tereth the sheep, he is.

disciples. 55 ¶ And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand; and many went out of the country up to Jerumlem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the tem-ple, What think ye! that he will not come to the feast?

5 Why was not this cintment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let ther alone: against the day of my burying hat she kept this.
8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ve have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there; and they came. not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaids of Gaillee, and di aired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh, and telleth Andrew; and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 7 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life shall lose it: and be that batech his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant he: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say! Father, save me from this bour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. 28 Father, glorify thy name. Then carue there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified ii, and will glorify ii again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and beard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice shall the prince of this world be cast out. 32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me 33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.) 34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for eyer: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not vhither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that we may be the children of light. The e things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosever believeth on me should not abide in durkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a com mandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

CHAP. XVIII

1 Judas betrayeth Christ. Peter denieth him. 28 Jesus is arraigned before Pilate.

HEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. 3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lantern and torches, and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seck ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am Ac. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am Ac, they went backward and fell to the ground. 7 Face asked he them again. Whom seek ye?

And they said, Jesus of Nazafeth. 8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am If therefore ye seek me, let these go their

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. 10 Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew

b. and smote the high priest's servant, and cut of his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it!
12 Then the band, and the captain, officers of the Jews, took Jesus, and bound

13 And led him away to Annas first : (for he was father-in-law to Calaphas, which was the high priest that same year.)

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. 15 T And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was that kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 Them saith the damsel that kept the and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed him-elf. 19 T The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. 20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort: and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me! ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. 23 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? 23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 (Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.) 25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: they said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples ? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being Lis kinsman whose ear Peter cut off) saith,

Did not I see thee in the garden with him? 27 Peter then denied again; and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be detiled; but that they might eat the passever. 29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said.

What accusation bring ye against this man ! 30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a maicfactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him. and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die. 33 Then Pilate entered into the judgmenthall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him.

Art thou the King of the Jews? 34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done? 26 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world. then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a King then! Jesus asswered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth! And when he had said this he went out again knows unto the high priest, and spake unto her justs the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault et ell. 38 But ye have a custom, that I should Christ's arraignment, release unto you one at the passover; will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

I Christ is securged, crowned with thorns. beaten and crucified: 28 he dieth, 38 and is buried. THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns. and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, 3 And said, Hall, King of the Jews! and they amore him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold. I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them. Take him. 7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. 8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid: 9 And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? 11 Jesus answered. Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee bath the greater sin. 12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that maying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the

14 And it was the preparation of the pass-over, and about the sixth hour; and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! 15 But they cried out, Away with Aim, away with Aim, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar 16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a scull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha;

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the 19 T And Pilate wrote a title, and put if on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city : and it was written in Hebre ... and Greek, and Latin. 21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucitied Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part, and also his roat : now the coat was without seam, woren from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did car lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. 25 T Now there stood by the cross of Jenus his mother, and his mother's sister. Mary the wife of Cleophes, and Mary Magdalene 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, Aim, crucify Aim. Pilate saith unfo them, Take and the disciple standing by whom he loved, ye him, and crucify Aim: for I find no fault in he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! 27 Then mith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put if upon hyssop, and put if to his mouth

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bewed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was an high-day.) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. 33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw.

judgment-seat, in a place that is called the that he was dead already, they brake not his Pavement, but in the Hobrew, Gabbatha. 34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. 35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the acrip-ture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this Joseph of Arimathea, (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews,) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

29 And there came also Nicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night.) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

wound it in linen clothes with the spices as the bled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus, and manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified

there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet unto them Als hands and his side.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation-day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX 1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre, 3 and Peter and John. 24 The incredulity of Thomas. THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepuichre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepuichre, and we know not where they have laid him. 3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the se pulchre.

5 And he, stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie.

7 And the napkin that was about his head not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. 8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own bome. 11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, weeping: and, as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned horself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She; supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, If thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. 17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for

I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

26 T And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto 27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach bither thy band, and thrust 4 into my side : and be not faithless, but believing.

The ACTS of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. 1.

1 A repetition of part of Christ's history after his passian. 9 Of his ascension.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments upto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of

5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be haptized with the Holy Ghost not

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou Mary, the mother of Jesus, and with his bre at this time restore again the kingdom of Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the termost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadlastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This sawe Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaver, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.
12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they were come in they went up into an upper room, where above both Feter, and James, and John. and An-drew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, drew, Philip, and Thomas, parturner, and Matthew, James the sea of Alpheur, and Judas the brother of and Simon Zelotes, and Judas, the breiker of Junes

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, (saith God,) I will pour out of my Spirit upon all itesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: 19 And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke, 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and nonable day of the Lord come: 21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. 22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you, by miracles, and wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and 24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death; because it was ust possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face; for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope: 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. 28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. 30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne: 31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. 32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. 33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. 37 T Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, What shall we do!

38 Then Peter said upto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call 40 And with many other words did be testify and exhort, saying, fave yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them e out three thousand souls.

42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and clders of Israel,

9 If we this day he examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth he possessed was his own; but they had all this man stand here before you whole.

II This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of 12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. 13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny #. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. 18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach, in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God. judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 50 when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing bow they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done

22 For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 T And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them. 24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is : 25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David, hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth, against thy holy child Je sus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and great unto thy servants, that with all boldners they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And when they nad prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul; neither said any of them that aught of the things which things common. 33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. 34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold. 35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet:

and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. 36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sneet, let down side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto from heaven by four corners: and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me,

Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. 9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God bath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house: 13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall he saved. 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he mid, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they beard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch;

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, ND the apostles and brethren that were that with purpose of heart they would cleave

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antiock. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these days came prophets from

Jerusalem unto Antioch

28 And there stood up one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

20 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

1 Herod persecuteth the Christians: his pride md miserable death.

TOW about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

fell of from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel: but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

Il And when Peter was come to himself, he said. Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, 12 And when he had considered the thing, unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a he came to the house of Mary the mother of false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together, praying, by the king's country. 21 And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.
23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory : and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the

The Gentiles believe. 45 The Jews biaspheme.

TOW there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and faced, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 T So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gome through the isle iesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the counword of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name Thy interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. 9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness! wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord !

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist, and a farkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the band.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down. 15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. 16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it. 18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nalions in the land of Channan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges. about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward, they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

42 And when the Jevs were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentices besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnahas: who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted. 8 Pas healing a cripple, they are reputed as gode. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They return to Antioch.

A ND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multi-tude, both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony upto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made, both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitafully, and to stone them. 6 They were ware of it, and fied unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about : And there they preached the gospel.

8 % And there sat a certain man at Lystra impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked : 9 The same heard Paul speak; who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed.

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on And he leaped and walked

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? we also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made beaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein: 16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless, he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our bearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrince unto them.

50 But the Jews stirred up the derout and people; and having stoned Faul, drew him to honourable women, and the chief men of the of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood rouse about him, he rose up and came into the city and the next day be departed with Banzabas 🗔 Derbe.

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exporting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting they commended them to the Lord, on when they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

CHAP. XV. Dissension about circumcision: the apostics consult about it : their determination. 36 Paul and Barnabas contend, and part.

ND certain men which came down from A Judea taught the brothres, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, we cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerumalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying. That it was needful to circumcise them, and to commend them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to comider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing Peter rose up. and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should bear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did usto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews 10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the a yoko upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear. 11 But we believe, that through the grace of the Lord Jagus Christ, we shall be saved, even 12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. 13 T And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, 14 Simeon bath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written.

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up.

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we troufor the consolation. 32 And Judas and Siles, being prophets also themselves, exhanted the brethren with many

4. And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

I Paul preacheth at Thessalonica. 10 and at Berea: 34 many are converted.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sert, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying. These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also:

7 Whom Jason bath received; and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the ru-lers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea : who, coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the worl with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Theesalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached them the same hour of the of Paul at Beres, they came thither also and 16 T Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he aw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and is the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this habbler say! other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of atrange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him un-to Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Trons in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together. 9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep aleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, were Sadducees, and the other Pharlsees, he eried out in the council. Men and brothren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee : of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dimension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no re-surrection, neitner angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but, if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring Abs into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul; for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near. are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto Aim, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to may unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked Aim, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to sesire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurfection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward

God and temard men. 17 Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude nor with tumult:

and object, if they had aught against me.

20 Or else let these same Acre say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I eried, standing among them. Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come. Felix trembled; and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season I will call for 27 But after two years Portius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound. CHAP. XXV.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among ou are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. 6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day, sitting in the jung-ment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against

Paul, which they could not prove;

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cosar, have I offended any thing at all. 9 But Festus, willing to do the fews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Will thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, snawered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go. 13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix :

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem. the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against 16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth;

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead. whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusaiem, and there be judged of these matters

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews;

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among rulne own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify.) that after the most strait-est sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: for which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead!

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every sypagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. 12 Whereupon, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests.

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick Asia: one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of The against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And let said. I am Jesus, whom thou persecutes: 16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet : feet doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 Then said Agripps unto Festus. This man named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. salonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and ave him liberty to go unto his friends to reresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence. we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the therein.

7 And when we bad sailed slowly many days. wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over a za net Salmone:

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the southwest and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. 16 And running under a certain island which s called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat: 17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fouring lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest law on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said. Birs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good 2 cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for 1 believe God, that it shall be even as it was told

26 Howbelt, we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found if twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it lifteen fathoms

29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out and scarce were come over against Chidus, the of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have east anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health : for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and wher, he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat intothe sea.

39 And when it was day they know not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded if It were possible, to thrust in the ship. 40 And when they had taken up the anchors they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. 41 And falling into a place where two-seas met, they ran the ship aground: and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land :

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land. CHAP. XXVIII.

and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that be was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. 14 I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written.

The just shall live by faith.

21 Because that, when they knew God, they dorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made lile to corruptible man, and to hirds, and four-footed beasts, and ereeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to un-eleanness, through the lusts of their own bearts, to dishonour their own bodies between natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not covenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, mali-clousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is out-

Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; 24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ: 25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his rightenusness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteourness; that he might be just, and the justifi-er of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay, but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a meria justified by faith without the deeds of th. .

29 Is he the God of the Jews only : Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. CHAP. IV.

1 Abraham's failh was imputed to him for righteousness: 24 and so shall ours.

WHAT shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works. he hath whereof to glory, but not before God. 3 For what saith the scripture! Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. 4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blemedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteourness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision!

Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

1! And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteeuspess of the faith which he had yet berig uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that in that while we were yet sinn believe, though they be not circumcised; that for us. rightcousness might be imputed unto them

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the rightcousness of faith. 14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of aone effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is after the similitude of Adam' of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us

17 (As it is written. I have made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though many. they were:

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

- 19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Barah's womb:
- 20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God:

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised he was able also to perform. 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for

- righteousness. 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone,
- that it was imputed to him: 24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed. If we believe on him that raised up Jesus car Lord from the dead; 25 ho was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. CHAP. V.

1 Being justified by falth, we have peace with God. 12 Sin and death came by Adam, 17 righteousness and life by Christ.

THEREPORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

- 2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
- 3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience:
- 4 And nationce, experience; and experience, hope:
- 5 And hope maketh not ashamed : because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.
- 6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the uncolly.
- 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

9 Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. 10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto

God. 11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not ain therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts

13 Neither yield ye your members as in-struments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For siz shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but uniter grace.

15 What then I shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace ! God forbid. 16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin: but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of rightsousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh : for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness, and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteouspess.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed! for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everleating life.

23 For the wages of sin to death : but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 7 The law is not sin, 12 but holy, just, and good.

NOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the faw) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he sin. liveth 1

2 For the woman which bath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then, if while her husband liveth she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit eato God.

5 For when we were in the Soch, the mo-8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe tions of slas which were by the law, did were in our members to bring forth fruit una death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. 7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin' God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the communi-ment, wrought is me all manner of concup-sence. For without the law sin was deed 9 For I was alive without the law once : but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 And the commandment, which was or-dained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin taking occasion by the com-mandment, deceived me, and by it siew mc.

12 Wherefore the law ir holy, and the commandment boly, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it me!! appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment migh; become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual:

but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not. I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would. I do not : but the evil which I would not, that I do. 20 New if I do that I would not, it is no more

I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in use.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man. 23 But I see another law in my mambers warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of size which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I see! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of

1 Who are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ. Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for ale condemned sin in the flesh;

5 For they that are after the fiesh do mind the things of the fiesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded to life and peace: 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot 12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spinet of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature whiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who bath subjected the same in hope.

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until DOW. 23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves grown within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body

24 For we are saved by hope; but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth why doth he yet hope for !

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with grounings which cannot be uttered.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; 5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

8 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel :

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, they which are the children of the fiesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father 11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had alore prepared unto glory, 24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

23 For he will floish the work and cut if short in rightenusness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esains said before, Except the Lord of sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith: 31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence : and whoseever believeth on him shall not be ashained

4 For Christ is the end of the law for rightcourness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doets these things, shall live by them.

6 But the rightcousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine beart. Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)
7 Or, who shall descend into the deep!

(that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead)

8 But what saith it? The word is met thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart : that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thire heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the beart man believeth upto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Il For the scripture saith, Whosever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek; for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the mame of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him is whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have My people, which were not my people; and not beard! and how shall they hear without a her Beloved, which was not beloved.

15 And how shall they preach except they he sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gaspel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel: for Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report ! 17 So then faith cometh by bearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know! First, Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

32 For God bath concluded them, all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. 33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! 34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance te mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him: If he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

afraid: for he beareth not the aword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ both died, and ros and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

1) For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to Wod.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 T Let us not therefore judge one another any more : but judge this rather, that so man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

for his good to edification. 3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written. The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. 4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we

Christ also received us to the glory of God. 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises susde unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy: as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. 10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Lilyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. 20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named. lest I should build upon another man's foundation :

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. 23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you; 24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For it bath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem 27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure, that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me:

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be accepted of the saints: 32 That I may some unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed, 33 Now the God of peace he with you all.

DAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ brother, 2 Unto the church of God which is at Cerinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theles and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. 4 I thank my God always ou your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and is all knowledge;

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: 7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom we were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 T Now I beseech you, brethfen, by the same of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom or words. lest the cross of Christ should be made of none

18 ¶ For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written. I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

world? 21 For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolinness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom;

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Pecause the fcolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 26 For ye see your calling, brethren, bow that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But God bath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to comfound the things which are mighty; 28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in be pre-eousness, and sanctification, and redemp- me tion:

Paul declareth that his preaching far excelleth all human nisdom

ND 1, brethren, when I came to you. A came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know any thing

among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching mas not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit, we speak wisdom apong them that are perfect; yet not the wiscom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known 4. they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God bath revealed them unto us by his Spirit : for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? even so the things of God knoweth no man, Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this but the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God : that we might know the things that are freely given > 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are notishness unto him : neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him! But we have the mind of Christ.

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's build-

10 According to the grace of God which is wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how be buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? Why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God! Be not de-ceived: neither agmicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind.

10 Northieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the 22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Curist's servant:

23 Ye are bought with a price; be alt ye the servants of men: 24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is-

28 But and if theu marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she bath not staned. Nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren. The time & short: it remaineth, that both they that bave wives be as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world pass-

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her busband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36. But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry 37 Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well

38 So then be that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead. she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the 5 But every woman that prayeth or pro-phesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head : for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. 10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on Aer head because of the angels.

Il Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, led. that, if a man bave long hair, it is a shame among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

trayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you; this do in remen brance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till be come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guffly of the body and blood of the Lord.

8 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselfes, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are Judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be con-

CHAP. XII.

1 Spirilual gifts are diverse, 7 yet all to profit withal. 12 Christians, as the members of the body natural, are one.

TOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. 2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: 25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accurred: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

8 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be bonoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first aposties, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers; after that miracles, then guits of healings, helps, governments, diversities of 4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. 6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? 7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a dis-tinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped !

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain wound, who shall prepare himself to the battle! 3 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tengue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is with-

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a harbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may inter-

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful

15 What is it then! I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye ali 19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice

I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit. in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sizn, not lieve not: but prophesying servely not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church he come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: 25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face

he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, buth a doctrine, bath a tongue, hath a revelation. hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that hy course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may loarn, and all may be comforted:

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets

33 For God is not the author of confosion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches; for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of God out from. you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, . or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let bim be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophery.

and forbid not to speak with tongues 40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection. 21 The fruit. 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the change of them that shall be alive then.

TOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you. which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand .

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. 3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose to them that believe, but to them that be again the third day according to the scriptures: 5 And that he was seen of Cenhas, then of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen of James: then of. all the apostles.

8 And lest of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

-10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grave which was bestoned upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they alt: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

we preach, and so ye believed.

18 Then they also which are fallen unlesp in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a partitual body. There is a natural body, and spiritual body.

there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. 46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy : the second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy : and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God: peither doth corruption inherit incor-ruption. 5k ¶ Rehold, I shew you a mystery; We shall pot all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, unto him, then shall the Son also himself bal at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, subject onto him that put all things under him, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saving that is written. Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting! U grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord:

3 And I wrote, this same unto you, lest when I came I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice: having.confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the sevour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. CHAP. III.

A commendation of Paul's ministry. comparison between the ministers of the law and the gorpel.

O we begin again to commend ourselves, or need we, as some after or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our epictle written in our hearts, known and read of all men :

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshiy tables of the beart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ te God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God:

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit : for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. 7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in atome, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of rightenusness exceed in glory. 10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

If For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. 12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech: 13 And not as Moses, which put a vall over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: 14 But their minds were blinded : for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. 15 Put even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord CHAP. I Paul's sincerity and diligence in preaching.

II For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also because we thus judge, that if one died for of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal all, then were all dead: firsh.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the' thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory:

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen : for the things which are reen are temporal: but the things which are not seen are eternal.

OR we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house, which is from heaven: 3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do grean, being burdened: not for that we would be nnclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

b Now he that bath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore me are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord :

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)
8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 9 T Wherefore we labour, that, whether 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia. our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within mere fears.

6 Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejeiced the more.

8 For though Lmade you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent : for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For go ily sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of : but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

liberality. 3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God: 6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our should be in vain in this be-

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bonnty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 T But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bounfitteen days.

13 But other of the aportles saw I none,

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He shemeth when he went up again to Jerusaicm, and may. 14 Of justification by faith, and not by works.

THEN fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But peither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person; for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me :

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as ta: gospel of the circumcision mas unto Peter :

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentites .)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should 20 unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; in omuch that Barnabas also, was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 % But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews'

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sin-

17 But if while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgresser. 19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 ¶ 1 am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Carist liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then

Christ is dead in vain.

10 For as many as are of the works of the low are under the curse: for it is written. Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

of the law being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree : 14 That the blessing of Abraham might some on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men ; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet ' it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this 1 say, That the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, # is no more of promise: but God gave if to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made : and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one,

but God is ene.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

But before faith came, we were kept under the law shut up unto the faith which abould afterwards be revealed. 24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring me unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmuster.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been bapti-sed into Christ, have put on Christ.

26 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is melther bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

two some, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freevoman.

23 But he was not of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinzi, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which I We were under the law till Christ came, 5 but now is, and is in bondage with her childree.

26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, [emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies. which is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not: break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate bath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now, we brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then be that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

4 Whereby when ye read ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; 6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel : 7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the begin-ning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the princicalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, 11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: 12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yo faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. 14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, 16 That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; 17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

DAUL and Timotheus, the servents of Jesus Christ, to all the seints in Christ Jeaus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and gain descous:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now: & Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: 7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inas-much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and is all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere, and without offence, till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteous-rejoice with me. 19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothers shortly unto you, that I also may be of goo! confort when I know your state.

20) For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. 22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he bath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

2) Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when we see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

night. 3 For when they shall say, Peace and safe-ty; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief: 5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others;

but let us watch and be sober. 7 For they that «leep, aleep in the night;

and they that be drunken; are drunken in the night. 8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love;

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disoruerly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disor-

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. 1. 3 Timethy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul. 5 The end of the law. 12 Paul's calling to be an apostle.

DAUL, na apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope ; 2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Just Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine

4 Neither give beed to fables and endies genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith; so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good con-science, and of faith unleigned:

Turned aside unto vain jangling:

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law: un--derstanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we knew that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawiess and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unboly and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manalayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine:

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trutt.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord. who hath er . ed me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them lown house, how shall be take care of the church which should hereafter believe on him to life of God?) eversating.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timethy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them might-est war a good warfare; 19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:

sight of God our Saviour:

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

2 How bishops, and deacons, and their wives, should be qualified.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; 3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient; not a brawler, not covetous; 4 One that ruleth well his own house

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil. 8 Likewise must the descous be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

Il Even so must their wives be grave, not alanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godlines: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. CHAP. IV.

and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy: having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and praver.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godiness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. 1.

8 Paul giveth divers exhortalions.

DAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord. 3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day; 4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with 5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partuker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began;

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: Il Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentues.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these I Paul's love to Timothy, and Timothy's faith. things: nevertheless, I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygeilus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not a shamed of my chain.

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day : and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus thou knowest very well. CHAP. II.

I Timothy exhorted to constancy and perseverance, 15 and to show hisself approved.

HOU therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful man, who shall be able to teach others also

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who bath chosen him to be a soldier

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

6 Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, accord- to houses, and lead captive silly women incen ing to my gospel: 9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

It is a faithful saying. For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him : 12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him. he also will deny us: 13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16 But soun profane and vain babblings:

for they will increase unto more ungodliness. 17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying, That the resurrection is past already;

and overthrow the faith of some. 19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God

standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts : but follow rightequaness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, 25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of from the truth, and shall be turned nato the truth:

with sine, led away with divers lusts; 7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 Now, as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth : men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the CHAP. I.

1 Christ, in these last times coming to us from the Father, a is preferred before angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets.

2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; 3 Who, being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and uphelding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son' 6 And again, when he bringeth in the first begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of

8 But unto the Son, he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of nighteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thine hands. 11 They shall perish; but thou remainest:

and they all shall wax old as doth a garment, 12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail. 13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool !

14 Are they not all ministering spirits. sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 We ought to be obedient unto Christ Jesus. 5 and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them

2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadiast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; 3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him: 4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles. and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angel hath he not put in subthings which were to be spoken after; jection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, say. ing, What is mun, that thou art mindful of him! or the son of man, that thou visitest him!

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection un-der his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one : for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And arain, Behold, I and the children which God bath given me.

14 Fora-much then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage, 16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that be might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For, in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses: 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jeaus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful ir all his bouse. 3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house bath more honour than the house. 4 For every house is builded by some man;

THEREFORE leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit. 4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth berbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: 8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed towards his name, in that ye bave ministered to the saints, and do minister.

of hope unto the end:

·12 That ye be not-slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Ahraam, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. 17 Wherein God, willing mere abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: 18 That by two immutable things, in which " tf mes impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us. 19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enter-part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteouspess, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Sea of God:

abideth a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man mas, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. 5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he received them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who re-ceiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his fa-ther, when Melchisedec met him. 11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron ? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. 17 For he testifieth. Thou gri a priest for and unprofitableness thereof. 19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the 6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

the least to the greatest. 12 For I will be merciful to their unrighte-

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hy-son, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testa-

The weakness of the law-sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered officetual. 19 An exhortation to faith and patience

OR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the bings, can never with those sacrifices which hey offered year by year continually make

2 For then would they not have ceased to he offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrame again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared judge his people. 6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. 7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will,

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offer-ing and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law: 9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will,

O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. 10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once fur all. 11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins :

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemied be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. 15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remem-

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, betranslation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house. by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is

God.

11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God : for he hath prepared for them a city.

18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

report through faith, received not the promise:

CHAP. 14.

1 We must not regard the rich, and despise the poor. 14 Faith without works, 17 is dead. MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of giory, with respect of persons. 2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him. Sit then here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or ait here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poer. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye folds the royal law according to the eripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ve do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgrossors.

. these things

10 For whospever shall keep the whole law. and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. 18 For he shall have judgment without mercv, that bath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works?

Can faith save blm?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled; notwithstanding we give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth the profit !

37 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith. Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way !

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

demination.

yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count sincimos; b long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth Ma brother, is in derkoess even until new.

10 He that leveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

It But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because re have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in t. world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the Holy

One, and ye know all things.
21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jeus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same bath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath pro-mised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written anto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the assisting, which ye have re-seived of him, abideth in you, and ye need not

CHAP. III. 1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons; 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

DEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him pot.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as

3 And every man that bath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the luw.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in hlm sinneth not: whosever sinneth bath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth rightcourness is rightcour, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 Itr this the children of God are m: effect, and the children of the devil: whosoever coeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that leveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that we heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Hecause his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whospever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer bath more sea 2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusaprepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Beheld, the tabernacle of God to with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death. neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said. Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things. and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all irars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vists full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of beaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light war like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal 12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Lyrael.

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three mates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a colden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth feursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furloogs. The length and the breadth and the furlongs. height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was qu jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topas; the tenth, a chrysoprasus: ings of the prophecy of this book : for the ti-thyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls;
22 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls;
23 And the every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

34 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. 26 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day : for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and ho-nour of the nations into it.

67 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatevever worketh abomination, or seateth a lie: but And let him that heareth say, Come. And it they which are written in the Lemb's book of him that is athirst come. And whosever will
